

GIVE ENERGY MAKE SMILES

The Writer's Reset

You reset through words.

YOUR STYLE

Your clarity lives on the page. Writers turn swirling thoughts into something solid by getting them out of their head. A few honest lines can untangle what hours of thinking cannot.

YOUR 3 STEP RESET

The Three Minute Dump

1

Dump it all

Set a timer for three minutes and write everything in your head. Messy counts. No one will read it.

2

Circle the one thing

Read it back and circle the one thing that matters most right now.

3

One line intention

Write one sentence about how you want the next hour to feel, then take one small step toward it.

MAKE IT YOURS

Keep a notebook within reach. Morning pages, bedtime lines, or margin notes all count.
